(f) keeps an animal chained or tethered with a short or heavy chain or cord, in close confinement or with hobbles on its legs;

(g) employs an animal in any work or labour, or causes an animal to be so employed, in such a manner as to subject it to distress, pain or suffering;

(h) wilfully or negligently allows an animal to stray, or abandons an animal in circumstances which expose it to distress, pain, suffering or illness;

(i) wilfully or negligently causes or permits —

(A) an animal, of which he is the owner, to stray in a public place while the animal is afflicted with a contagious or infectious disease; or

(B) a diseased, disabled or injured animal, of which he is the owner, to die in a public place;
(j) not being a veterinary surgeon, mutilates or kills an animal in any manner, or performs ear cropping, tail docking, defanging, declawing, branding, piercing, dehorning, nose roping, or castration on an animal;

(k) confines an animal, or causes or permits an animal to be confined, or baits an animal so as to make it an object of prey for any other animal, or incites an animal to fight any other animal or any human being;

(l) organises animal fighting, or keeps or uses, or participates or acts in the management of, any place for animal fighting or for the purpose of baiting an animal, or permits or offers any place to be so used, or contributes or receives consideration for the promotion of such animal fighting or for the admission of any other person to a place kept or used for any such purpose;

(m) promotes or takes part in a shooting match, or competition, in which animals are released from captivity for the purpose of shooting them; or

(n) causes, procures, or subjects an animal to, or being the owner, permits his animal to be subjected to, a surgical operation which is performed without due care and in an inhumane manner, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 15,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to the commission of an act in the course of the destruction, or the preparation for destruction, of an animal as food for mankind, where the destruction or preparation is not accompanied by the infliction of unnecessary suffering on the animal.

4. Authorised officer

(1) The supervising officer may designate such public officer as he considers appropriate to act as an authorised officer for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this Act.
(2) (a) Every authorised officer shall —

(i) be issued with an identity card issued by the supervising officer; and

(ii) if so requested by the supervising officer or on leaving the public service, surrender his identity card.

(b) An authorised officer who fails to surrender his identity card pursuant to paragraph (a) (ii) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees.

(3) For the purpose of exercising his powers under this Act, an authorised officer may be accompanied by a police officer.

(4) An authorised officer shall have the power to impound or seize an animal in accordance with this Act.

5. Power of entry and search

(1) Where an authorised officer has reasonable ground to suspect that an offence under this Act has been, is being or is about to be committed against an animal on any land or premises, he may, subject to subsection (2), enter the land or premises in order to —

(a) inspect the animal kept on the land or premises and view the condition in which the animal is being kept; and

(b) impound or seize the animal.

(2) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), an authorised officer shall not enter a dwelling house unless —

(i) he shows the owner or occupier of the land or premises a warrant issued by a Magistrate; and
(ii) he is accompanied by a police officer.

(b) Paragraph (a) shall not apply where an authorised officer has reasonable ground to believe that the life or health of an animal is at risk.

(c) A District Magistrate may, on being satisfied on an information on oath that entry and search into a dwelling house are necessary to enable an authorised officer to exercise his powers under this Act, issue a warrant authorising the authorised officer to enter and search the dwelling house.

(d) A warrant issued under paragraph (c) shall be valid for the period stated in the warrant and shall be subject to such conditions as the District Magistrate may specify.

(3) An authorised officer who enters any land or premises for the purposes of this section may be accompanied by such person as he considers necessary.

6. Protection order

(1) Where an authorised officer has reasonable ground to suspect that an animal has been, is being or is likely to be the subject of an offence under section 3, he may serve a protection order on the owner of the animal ordering that the animal be put, for such period as he may specify, in such place and kept in such manner as he may specify.

(2) Any person who is dissatisfied with a protection order may, within 7 days of the date of service of the order on him, appeal to the supervising officer who may uphold or discharge the order.

(3) A protection order shall remain in force pending the determination of the appeal by the supervising officer.

(4) Where the supervising officer —

(a) dismisses an appeal, the protection order shall remain in force until the owner is able to show that appropriate corrective measures have been taken in relation to the animal;

(b) allows the appeal, the protection order shall be discharged.

7. Apprehension of offenders

Where an offence is committed under section 3, a police officer may, without any authority or warrant and in presence of an authorised officer, forthwith arrest the offender and convey him as soon as is reasonably practicable before the Magistrate of the district where the offence has been committed, to be dealt with according to law.

PART III - EXPERIMENTS

8. Experiment on animal

(1) No person shall perform an experiment unless he is issued with a licence to that effect under subsection (5).

(2) Where a person wishes to perform an experiment, he shall make an application to the Minister for a licence in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of an application under subsection (2), the Minister may require the applicant to furnish such additional information as he considers appropriate.

(4) The Minister may grant or refuse an application made under subsection (2).

(5) Where the Minister grants an application, he shall issue a licence to the applicant in such form as may be prescribed and, subject to subsection (6), on such conditions as he may determine.

(6) A licence shall specify the place where the experiment is to be performed.

9. Restrictions on experiment
(1) No licensee shall perform an experiment except in accordance with this Act and the conditions of his licence.

(2) No licensee shall perform an experiment for the purpose of attaining manual skill.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), no licensee shall perform an experiment except —

(a) for the purpose of the advancement by new discovery of—

   (i) physiological knowledge; or

   (ii) any knowledge which will be useful for saving or prolonging life, alleviating suffering or combating any disease of human beings, animals or plants;

(b) for the purpose of testing any previous discovery alleged to have been made for the advancement of the types of knowledge referred to in paragraph (a); or

(c) on the written order of a Judge who is satisfied that it is essential for the purposes of justice in a criminal case to perform the experiment.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), no licensee shall perform an experiment unless —

(a) throughout the experiment, the animal is under the influence of anaesthetic of sufficient power to prevent the animal from feeling pain; and

(b) the animal is administered appropriate sedation where the pain is likely to continue after the effect of the anaesthetic has ceased.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) shall not apply in the case of a routine bacteriological or pathological investigation carried out by a public officer in the performance of his duties.

10. Records, inspections and returns
Every licensee shall —

(a) keep a record of every experiment performed by him, in such form as may be prescribed;

(b) permit any person authorised in writing by the Minister to inspect at any reasonable time any record kept by him;

(c) permit any person authorised in writing by the supervising officer to enter and inspect any place specified in his licence for the performance of experiments; and

(d) submit to the Minister, in such form and at such time as may be prescribed, such returns as he may require in relation to any experiment performed by him.

11. Offences under Part III

(1) Any person who contravenes —

   (a) this Part; or

   (b) any condition of his licence,

shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

(2) No prosecution for an offence under this Part shall be instituted except by or with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

PART IV - THE SOCIETY

Sub-Part A — Establishment of Society

12. The Society
(1) There is established for the purposes of this Act the Mauritius Society for Animal Welfare.

(2) The Society shall be a body corporate.

13. Objects and functions of Society

(1) The objects of the Society shall be to —

(a) promote the welfare and good treatment of animals;

(b) prevent cruelty to animals.

(2) The Society shall —

(a) organise and be responsible for the catching and disposal of stray dogs and cats; and

(b) implement such project or programme related to the welfare of animals as the Minister may approve.

14. Membership of Society

(1) (a) A person having an interest in the objects of the Society may apply to become a member of the Society.

(b) An application for membership shall be made in such form as the Council may approve, signed by the applicant and submitted to the Director.

(c) The decision of the Council on an application for membership shall be notified to the applicant within a period of one month from the date of receipt of an application.

(d) Where an application is granted —
(i) the applicant shall pay the admission fee specified in Part I of the Second Schedule to the Council within one month from the date of notification; and

(ii) on payment by the applicant of the admission fee, the name of the applicant shall be entered on the roll of members of the Society.

(e) Where an application is rejected, the applicant may appeal to the supervising officer within 15 days from the date of such notification.

(2) (a) Where a member of the Society pays the subscription fee specified in paragraph
(a) of Part II of the Second Schedule in one lump sum, he shall be registered as a life member.

(b) Where a member elects to pay the yearly subscription fee specified in paragraph (b) of Part II of the Second Schedule, he shall be registered as an ordinary member.

(c) (i) An ordinary member who does not pay his subscription fee within 3 months from the date it becomes due shall be notified in writing by the Director.

(ii) Where an ordinary member fails to pay his subscription fee within one month of the date of the notification referred to in subparagraph (i), he shall cease to be a member of the Society from the day he is notified and his name shall be erased from the roll of members of the Society.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the yearly subscription fee —

(a) shall become due —

(i) on 10 January of each year;

(ii) in the case of any person who is admitted as a member after 10
January of any year, on the tenth day after his admission as a member;
(b) shall be payable in full notwithstanding that a person has been or will be a member for part of a year only.

(4) (a) A person shall cease to be a member of the Society and shall forfeit all rights and privileges where his conduct, in the opinion of not less than two-thirds of the members of the Council present and voting at a meeting of the Council, is found to be prejudicial to the interests of the Society.

(b) The Director shall, not less than 14 days before the meeting of the Council at which a decision is to be taken regarding the conduct of a member of the Society, give notice of the meeting to the member by registered post at his last known address and inform him that he may, either personally or in writing, submit an explanation regarding the matter complained of.

(c) A member of the Society who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Council to erase his name from the roll of members of the Society may, within 30 days of being notified of the Council's decision, appeal from the Council's decision to the supervising officer.

Sub-Part B — Administration of Society

15. The Council

(1) The Society shall be administered by a Council, which shall consist of —

(a) 7 members elected, in the manner specified in the Third Schedule, from among the members of the Society

(e) a representative of the Ministry responsible for the subject of tourism;

(f) a representative of the Ministry responsible for the subject of health; and

(g) 3 persons, one of whom shall be a veterinary surgeon, to be appointed by the Minister.

(2) (a) The election of members of the Council referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall be held within 30 days of the expiry of every period of 2 years from the first election of members of the Council.

(b) An elected member of the Council shall hold office —
   (i) for a period of 2 years commencing on the date of his election;
   (ii) for a maximum of 2 terms.

(c) A member of the Council appointed under subsection (1)(g) shall hold office for a period of 2 years and may be reappointed.

(3) There shall be a Chairperson of the Society, who shall be designated by the Minister from among the members of the Council and who shall hold office for a period of 2 years and on such other terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.

(4) (a) The Council may co-opt any other person who may be of assistance in relation to any matter before it.

(b) A person co-opted under paragraph (a) shall —
   (i) not have the right to vote at a meeting of the Council; and
   (ii) be paid such allowance as the Council may determine.

(5) Every member of the Council shall be paid such allowance as the Minister may determine.

(6) The office of a member of the Council shall become vacant where —
(a) by notice in writing addressed to the Director, he resigns as member of the Council or where he is an elected member, he ceases to be a member of the Society; or

(b) he fails to attend 3 consecutive meetings of the Council and after having been notified by the Director of such failure, he does not furnish a satisfactory explanation to the Council within 15 days of receipt of the notification.

16. Meetings of Council

(1) The Council shall meet as often as the Chairperson thinks necessary but at least once every month.

(2) A meeting of the Council shall be held at such time and place as the Chairperson thinks fit.

(3) At a meeting of the Council, 7 members of the Council, including the Chairperson, shall constitute a quorum.

(4) The Director shall, unless otherwise directed by the Council, attend every meeting of the Council and may take part in its deliberations, but shall not have the right to vote.

(5) The Council shall designate an officer to act as Secretary to the Council who shall—

(a) prepare and attend every meeting of the Council;

(b) keep minutes of proceedings of every meeting of the Council; and

(c) have such other duties as may be conferred on him by the Council.

(6) At any meeting of the Council, each member of the Council shall have one vote on a matter in issue and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(7) Where a member of the Council or a person related to him by blood or marriage has a pecuniary or other material interest in relation to any matter before the Council, the member shall —

(a) disclose the nature of the interest before or at the meeting convened to discuss that matter; and

(b) not take part in any deliberations of the Council relating to that matter.

(8) Subject to this section, the Council shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it may determine.

17. Powers of Council

(1) The Council shall, except as otherwise provided, have and exercise the same powers concerning the Society as those conferred on the Society by this Act and may perform all acts for the due execution and exercise of those powers.

(2) The Council may appoint subcommittees which shall consist of such members of the Council and have such powers as the Council may determine.

18. Director of Society

(1) The Council shall, with the approval of the Minister, appoint a Director of the Society on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

(2) The Director shall —

(a) be responsible for the execution of the policy of the Council and for the control and management of the day-to-day business of the Society;

(b) act in accordance with such directives as he may receive from the Council.
(3) The Director may, with the approval of the Council, delegate his powers and functions to such officer as he may determine.

19. Officers of Society

(1) The Council may, on such terms as it may determine, appoint such number of officers as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the functions of the Society.

(2) Every officer shall be under the administrative control of the Director.

(3) The Council shall make provision, in such manner as it may determine, to govern the conditions of service of officers and in particular to deal with —

   (a) the appointment, dismissal, discipline, pay and leave of, and the security to be given to, officers;

   (b) appeals by officers against dismissal or other disciplinary measures; and

   (c) the establishment and maintenance of provident and pension fund schemes and the contributions payable to and the benefits recoverable from those schemes.

20. Powers of Minister

(1) The Minister may give such directions of a general character to the Council, not inconsistent with this Act, as he considers necessary in the public interest and the Council shall comply with those directions.

(2) The Minister may require the Council to furnish such information in such manner and at such time as he thinks necessary in respect of its activities, and the Council shall supply that information.

Sub-Part C — Financial Provisions
21. Funds of Society
   (1) The Society shall set up a General Fund —
       (a) into which shall be paid —

       (i) such fees or charges as may be levied by the Society;

       (ii) any money appropriated from the Consolidated Fund; and

       (iii) any other sum that may lawfully accrue to the Society from any other source; and

       (b) out of which all payments required to be made by the Society for the purposes of this Act shall be effected.

   (2) The property and income of the Society shall be applied solely towards the promotion and attainment of the objects of the Society.

   (3) No portion of the property or income shall be distributed or transferred by way of dividend or bonus to any member of the Society or Council.

22. Donations and exemptions
   (1) Article 910 of the Code Civil Mauricien shall not apply to the Society.

   (2) Notwithstanding any other enactment —

       (a) the Society shall be exempt from payment of any duty, rate, charge, fee or tax;

       and

       (b) no stamp duty or registration fee shall be payable in respect of any document under which the Society is the sole beneficiary.

23. Estimates
   (1) The Society shall submit to the Minister, not later than 30 September in every year, an estimate of the income and expenditure of the Society for the next financial year for his approval.

(2) Where the Minister gives his approval under subsection (1), he may direct the Society to amend the estimate in respect of any item in such manner as he may determine.

24. Annual report

(1) The Society shall, not later than 4 months from the end of a financial year, submit to the Minister an annual report together with an audited statement of accounts, to be audited by the Director of Audit, on the operations of the Society in respect of that financial year.

(2) The Minister shall, at the earliest available opportunity, lay a copy of the annual report and audited accounts of the Society before the Assembly.

Sub-Part D — Miscellaneous

25. Execution of documents

(1) Subject to subsection (2), no deed or other document shall be executed by or on behalf of the Society unless it is signed by —

(a) the Chairperson or, in his absence, a member of the Council designated by the Council; and

(b) the Director, or, in his absence, an officer designated by the Council.

(2) All cheques shall be signed by the Chairperson and the Director.

26. Legal proceedings

(1) The Society shall act, sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(2) Service of process by or on the Society shall be sufficient if made on behalf of or on the Director.

(3) No liability, civil or criminal, shall be incurred by the Society, a member of the Council or an officer in respect of any act done or omitted in good faith in the performance of its or his functions or exercise of its or his powers under this Act.

27. Confidentiality

(1) No member of the Council or officer shall, during or after his relationship with the Society, use or disclose any matter which comes to his knowledge in the performance of his functions, except for the purposes of administering this Act.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

28. Winding up

Where the Society is wound up, all the assets, after payment of all debts and meeting all liabilities of the Society, shall be transferred to the Consolidated Fund.

29. Affiliation

The Society may, subject to the approval of the Minister, affiliate with any other society or body corporate, in Mauritius or elsewhere, which has the same objects as those of the Society.

30. Rules

The Council may, subject to the approval of the Minister, make rules —

(a) to provide for the management of the affairs of the Society;

(b) to amend the Third Schedule;
generally for carrying out the objects of the Society.

PART V - CONTROL OF DOGS

31. Registration of dogs and other domestic pets

(1) (a) Every person who becomes the owner of a dog shall, not later than 30 days; and in the case of a dangerous dog, within 15 days, after the date on which he becomes the owner, cause it to be registered with the Society and pay such registration fee as may be prescribed.

(b) Every owner of a dog shall cause the dog to be micro-chipped before registration.

(c) Every owner of a dog shall, on registering a dog under subsection (1), make a declaration in writing, in such form as the Council may approve, specifying whether the dog shall be kept for breeding purposes.

(d) Where the owner of a dog declares that —

(i) the dog shall not be kept for breeding purposes; and

(ii) he has no objection to the dog being sterilised, the dog shall be sterilised at such time and in such manner as the Council may determine.

(2) Every person who becomes the owner of a domestic pet, other than a dog, shall, not later than 30 days on which he becomes the owner, cause it to be registered with the Society and pay such registration fee as may be prescribed.

(3) Any person who contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5,000 rupees.

32. Obligations of dog owners
(1) Every owner of a dog shall ensure that the dog does not —

(a) injure or intimidate any person, or endanger any poultry, domestic animal or protected wildlife; or

(b) damage any property belonging to any other person.

(2) Every owner of a dog shall —

(a) cause the premises on which the dog is kept to be secured by a fence, wall or gate which is of a suitable height and constructed and maintained in such manner as to prevent the dog from escaping;

(b) not allow the dog to be at large, except when confined within a vehicle or cage, or on leash;

(c) where the dog is of a breed, kind or description listed in the Fourth Schedule, cause it to be neutered;

(d) where the dog is a dangerous dog —

(i) cause to be displayed in a conspicuous place on his premises, a notice, in such form as the Council may approve, indicating that there is a dangerous dog on the premises; and

(ii) not, without the written consent of the DVS, dispose of the dog.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(b), every owner of a dangerous dog shall ensure that the dog is —

(a) muzzled in such a manner as to prevent it from biting any person, domestic animal or any other dog;

(b) under the effective control of at least one person who is aged 16 or above by means of an adequate chain, cord or leash that is attached to the dog and held by, or secured to, that person; and

(c) not left alone at any time.

(4) Any person who contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

(5) Where a person contravenes this section, an authorised officer may — (a) seize the dog and remove it from the person’s possession; and (b) retain custody of the dog until the DVS is satisfied that the person agrees to comply with subsection (1), (2) or (3), or to dispose of the dog within a period of one month.

33. Dogs attacking, chasing or rushing at persons, domestic animals or vehicles

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where a dog — (a) attacks, rushes at or chases any person or domestic animal; or (b) rushes at or chases a vehicle, causing damage to the vehicle, the owner of the dog shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply — (a) where a person or animal is trespassing on the property on which the dog is kept; (b) where the dog is acting in reasonable defence of a person or any property; or (c) in the course of lawful hunting.
Subsection (1) shall not apply to a dog which is —

(a) kept by —

(i) the Police or Customs authorities;

(ii) the Mauritius Prisons Service;

(iii) a person issued with a licence to operate a private security service under the Private Security Service Act; or

(iv) the National Parks and Conservation Service or an officer of that department; and

(b) under the control of an appropriate person assisting in the performance of the duties of any of the authorities or persons referred to in paragraph (a).

(4) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a person may, for the purpose of stopping an attack, intervene or seize a dog which is outside the owner’s premises where that person —

(i) is attacked by the dog; or

(ii) witnesses the dog attacking any other person or a domestic animal.

(b) Where the owner of the dog is present at or immediately after the attack, he shall immediately remove the dog and place it in a secure place for any action deemed necessary by an authorised officer.

(c) Where a person seizes a dog under paragraph (a), he shall, within 24 hours, inform the DVS.

(5) Where an authorised officer has reasonable ground to believe that an offence has been committed under this section, he may impound or seize the dog.
34. Inciting or urging dog to attack

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who incites or urges a dog to attack, bite, harass or chase any person, or any domestic or other animal, whether causing injury or not, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply where the dog acted in —

(a) the reasonable defence of a person or any property;

(b) the course of the proper performance of a person’s duties as a police officer, prison officer or security guard;

(c) the course of lawful hunting;

(d) the course of its training by the Police, Mauritius Prisons Service, Customs authorities or their officers in the exercise of their powers and performance of their duties.

(c) advertise that a dog of a breed, kind or description listed in the Fourth Schedule is available for breeding;

(d) make or offer to make a gift of a dog of a breed, kind or description listed in the Fourth Schedule, or advertise or expose such a dog as a gift.

(2) Any person who wishes to breed one or more dogs for the purpose of reproduction, other than a dog of a breed, kind or description which is listed in the Fourth Schedule, shall apply for registration as a dog breeder.

(3) (a) An application for registration under subsection (2) shall be made to the DVS which shall determine the application within a period of one month as from the date of receipt of the application.

(b) Where an application is granted, the DVS shall issue a breeder’s permit —

(i) subject to such terms and conditions as the DVS may impose, including the furnishing of such returns relating to the disposal of dogs as may be approved by the supervising officer;

(ii) on payment of the fee specified in the Fifth Schedule.

(4) (a) Any person who, without being registered as a dog breeder under subsection
(3), breeds a dog or disposes of a dog for gain shall commit an offence.

(b) Any person registered as a dog breeder under subsection (3) who breaches any condition attached to his breeder’s permit shall commit an offence.

(5) A dog breeder who disposes of a dog which he is breeding shall, within 30 days of such disposal, inform the DVS of the name and address of any person who is now in charge of the dog.

(6) Any person who commits an offence under this section shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

37. Dog shows and pedigree certificates

(1) No person shall —

(a) hold a dog show; or
